

LEGEND

This is a detailed street map of the Euclid Heights area in Cleveland, Ohio. The map is oriented with North at the top. Major streets shown include Euclid Avenue running vertically through the center, and Harrison Avenue running horizontally across the middle. Other streets include 1st through 29th streets, which run horizontally across the map. Key landmarks and features include:

- Euclid Hospital: Located in the lower-left quadrant, near the intersection of Euclid Avenue and 12th Street.
- Skinner's Terrace: A large residential complex located in the upper-middle section, between 15th and 20th streets.
- Jacot Park: Located in the upper-right quadrant, near 23rd Street.
- Gladdell Park: Located in the lower-right quadrant, near 11th Street.
- Euclid Heights: The name of the neighborhood is prominently displayed in the center of the map.
- Scale Bar: Located at the bottom of the map, showing distances in feet (0, 100, 200, 300, 400, 500, 600, 700, 800, 900, 1000).

The map also shows various smaller streets, parks, and landmarks, providing a comprehensive view of the area.